I. Today's Reading

NKJV: Song of Solomon 2:1-17

1 I am the rose of Sharon, And the lily of the valleys.

2 Like a lily among thorns, So is my love among the daughters.

3 Like an apple tree among the trees of the woods, So is my beloved among the sons. I sat down in his shade with great delight, And his fruit was sweet to my taste.

4 He brought me to the banqueting house, And his banner over me was love.

5 Sustain me with cakes of raisins, Refresh me with apples, For I am lovesick.

6 His left hand is under my head, And his right hand embraces me.

7 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, By the gazelles or by the does of the field, Do not stir up nor awaken love Until it pleases.

8 The voice of my beloved! Behold, he comes Leaping upon the mountains, Skipping upon the hills.

9 My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag. Behold, he stands behind our wall; He is looking through the windows, Gazing through the lattice.

10 My beloved spoke, and said to me: “Rise up, my love, my fair one, And come away.

11 For lo, the winter is past, The rain is over and gone.

12 The flowers appear on the earth; The time of singing has come, And the voice of the turtledove Is heard in our land.

13 The fig tree puts forth her green figs, And the vines with the tender grapes Give a good smell. Rise up, my love, my fair one, And come away!

14 “O my dove, in the clefts of the rock, In the secret places of the cliff, Let me see your face, Let me hear your voice; For your voice is sweet, And your face is lovely.”

15 Catch us the foxes, The little foxes that spoil the vines, For our vines have tender grapes.

16 My beloved is mine, and I am his. He feeds his flock among the lilies.

17 Until the day breaks And the shadows flee away, Turn, my beloved, And be like a gazelle Or a young stag Upon the mountains of Bether.

II. Key Summary

• She says, "I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys"; he says she is like a lily among thorns among the daughters; she says he is like an apple tree among the trees of the woods among the sons (vv. 1-3).

• She says, "He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love," and charges the daughters of Jerusalem, "Do not stir up nor awaken love until it pleases" (vv. 4-7).

• Her beloved comes leaping upon the mountains, stands behind the wall, and twice tells her, "Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away," for the winter is past; she says, "My beloved is mine, and I am his" (vv. 8-16).

III. Passage Analysis

"Rise Up and Come Away"

> "The repetition denotes backwardness in her (we have need to be often called to come away with Jesus Christ; precept must be upon precept and line upon line), but it denotes earnestness in him." [1]

In verse 10 her beloved says, "Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away," and in verse 13 he says the exact same words again. In between, he tells her that "the winter is past, the rain is over and gone," the flowers appear, and the voice of the turtledove is heard.

He gives the same invitation twice.

Catching the Little Foxes

> "Both of them are determined to stop anything that would damage this relationship." [2]

Verse 15 says, "Catch us the foxes, the little foxes that spoil the vines," using the word "us." The reason given is "for our vines have tender grapes."

The vines have tender grapes, so the little foxes must be caught.

IV. Reflection Question

When someone says to you, "Get up and come with me," what keeps you from getting up?

In verse 10 her beloved tells her, "Rise up and come away," and in verse 13 he says it again, telling her in between that "the winter is past, the rain is over and gone." By verse 16 she says, "My beloved is mine, and I am his."
