

Daily Bible Note

Date: September 11, 2026

I. Today's Reading

NKJV: Psalm 119:153-168

153 Consider my affliction and deliver me, For I do not forget Your law.

154 Plead my cause and redeem me; Revive me according to Your word.

155 Salvation is far from the wicked, For they do not seek Your statutes.

156 Great are Your tender mercies, O Lord; Revive me according to Your judgments.

157 Many are my persecutors and my enemies, Yet I do not turn from Your testimonies.

158 I see the treacherous, and am disgusted, Because they do not keep Your word.

159 Consider how I love Your precepts; Revive me, O Lord, according to Your lovingkindness.

160 The entirety of Your word is truth, And every one of Your righteous judgments endures forever.

161 Princes persecute me without a cause, But my heart stands in awe of Your word.

162 I rejoice at Your word As one who finds great treasure.

163 I hate and abhor lying, But I love Your law.

164 Seven times a day I praise You, Because of Your righteous judgments.

165 Great peace have those who love Your law, And nothing causes them to stumble.

166 Lord, I hope for Your salvation, And I do Your commandments.

167 My soul keeps Your testimonies, And I love them exceedingly.

168 I keep Your precepts and Your testimonies, For all my ways are before You.

II. Key Summary

- Verses 153–160: In the middle of affliction, with many persecutors and enemies around him, the psalmist asks God three times to "revive me." He says he has not forgotten or turned away from God's word, and declares that the entirety of God's word is truth and endures forever.

- Verses 161–164: Princes persecute the psalmist without a cause, yet his heart stands in awe of God's word. He rejoices at it like someone who finds great treasure, hates lying, and praises God seven times a day.

- Verses 165–168: The psalmist says great peace belongs to those who love God's law, and nothing causes them to stumble. He hopes for God's salvation and does His commandments, knowing that all his ways are before God.

III. Passage Analysis

Whose Voice Do You Fear Most?

"They would make me stand in awe of them and their word, and do as they bid me; but my heart stands in awe of thy word... The heart that stands in awe of God's word is armed against the temptations that arise from persecution." [1]

The people pressuring the psalmist were powerful, and the pressure was real. But what God said mattered more to him than what they said, so no amount of pushing could pull him away.

Peace Is Promised to Those Who Love

"This verse does not promise peace to those who perfectly keep God's Law, for who can keep it? It promises peace to those who 'love' God's Law." [2]

You don't have to get everything right before you can have peace. If you truly love God's word and keep coming back to Him, you can stay steady inside even when life around you is a mess.

IV. Reflection Question

What is one thing making you feel uneasy right now? In that situation, whose voice matters most to you?

Psalm 119:165 says, "Great peace have those who love Your law, and nothing causes them to stumble."

References

[1] Blue Letter Bible, Matthew Henry's Commentary on the Whole Bible (Psalm 119), https://www.blueletterbible.org/comm/mhc/Psa/Psa_119.cfm

[2] Enduring Word, David Guzik's Commentary (citing James Montgomery Boice), <https://enduringword.com/bible-commentary/psalm-119/>