I. Today's Reading

NKJV: 1 Chronicles 16:23-36

23 Sing to the LORD, all the earth; Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.

24 Declare His glory among the nations, His wonders among all peoples.

25 For the LORD is great and greatly to be praised; He is also to be feared above all gods.

26 For all the gods of the peoples are idols, But the LORD made the heavens.

27 Honor and majesty are before Him; Strength and gladness are in His place.

28 Give to the LORD, O families of the peoples, Give to the LORD glory and strength.

29 Give to the LORD the glory due His name; Bring an offering, and come before Him. Oh, worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness!

30 Tremble before Him, all the earth. The world also is firmly established, It shall not be moved.

31 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; And let them say among the nations, "The LORD reigns."

32 Let the sea roar, and all its fullness; Let the field rejoice, and all that is in it.

33 Then the trees of the woods shall rejoice before the LORD, For He is coming to judge the earth.

34 Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever.

35 And say, "Save us, O God of our salvation; Gather us together, and deliver us from the Gentiles, To give thanks to Your holy name, To triumph in Your praise."

36 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel From everlasting to everlasting! And all the people said, "Amen!" and praised the LORD.

II. Key Summary

- David calls all the earth to sing to the LORD, to proclaim His salvation from day to day, and to declare His glory and wonders among all nations and peoples (vv. 23–24).
 - The passage says the gods of the peoples are idols, but the LORD made the heavens; the heavens, earth, sea, fields, and trees are all called to rejoice before Him, because the LORD reigns and is coming to judge the earth (vv. 25–33).
 - The song ends by calling people to give thanks to the LORD because He is good and His mercy endures forever, and by asking God to save and gather His people; all the people say "Amen!" and praise the LORD (vv. 34–36).

III. Passage Analysis

The Daily Story Is a Changed Life

The "wonders" of God that believers can best testify to before the world are not good health or everything going their way, but a life being changed by God day by day. [1]

Verse 24 says to "declare His wonders," and those wonders don't have to be dramatic miracles. The way God slowly changes you is something other people can actually see, and it's good news you can share "from day to day."

God's Love Doesn't Walk Away When You Fall

This chapter twice stresses that "His mercy endures forever"... to remind again and again the people who returned from exile, and every believer today: no matter how unfaithful they have been, or how they have failed and fallen, God always keeps His covenant... the people receive God's mercy and grace not because of their own behavior or character. [2]

The "mercy" in verse 34 is a love that keeps its promises and doesn't change. God is good to you not because you performed well enough, but because He Himself is good — so this love never runs out.

IV. Reflection Question

This week, what did you and your friends talk about the most? If you followed verse 23 and proclaimed His salvation "from day to day," what is one thing God has done for you that you would add to that conversation?

David calls all the earth to proclaim God's salvation every day because the LORD is good and His mercy endures forever — the change He is making in you is itself good news worth telling.
