Daily Bible Note

Date: 2026-10-20

I. Today's Reading

NKJV: 1 Chronicles 28:11-21

11 Then David gave his son Solomon the plans for the vestibule, its houses, its treasuries, its upper chambers, its inner chambers, and the place of the mercy seat;

12 and the plans for all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the Lord, of all the chambers all around, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries for the dedicated things;

13 also for the division of the priests and the Levites, for all the work of the service of the house of the Lord, and for all the articles of service in the house of the Lord.

14 He gave gold by weight for things of gold, for all articles used in every kind of service; also silver for all articles of silver by weight, for all articles used in every kind of service;

15 the weight for the lampstands of gold, and their lamps of gold, by weight for each lampstand and its lamps; for the lampstands of silver by weight, for the lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand.

16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of the showbread, for each table, and silver for the tables of silver;

17 also pure gold for the forks, the basins, the pitchers of pure gold, and the golden bowls—he gave gold by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls, silver by weight for every bowl;

18 and refined gold by weight for the altar of incense, and for the construction of the chariot, that is, the gold cherubim that spread their wings and overshadowed the ark of the covenant of the Lord.

19 “All this,” said David, “the Lord made me understand in writing, by His hand upon me, all the works of these plans.”

20 And David said to his son Solomon, “Be strong and of good courage, and do it; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the Lord God—my God—will be with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord.

21 Here are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God; and every willing craftsman will be with you for all manner of workmanship, for every kind of service; also the leaders and all the people will be completely at your command."

II. Key Summary

• David gave his son Solomon the plans for the vestibule, its houses, treasuries, upper chambers, inner chambers, and the place of the mercy seat, along with the divisions of the priests and Levites and all the articles of service in the house of the Lord (vv. 11–13).

• David gave gold and silver by weight for the lampstands, the tables of the showbread, the bowls, the altar of incense, and the gold cherubim that spread their wings over the ark; he said the Lord made him understand all the works of these plans in writing, by His hand upon him (vv. 14–19).

• David told Solomon, "Be strong and of good courage, and do it; do not fear nor be dismayed," because the Lord God would be with him; he added that the priests and Levites, every willing craftsman, the leaders, and all the people would be with him and at his command (vv. 20–21).

III. Passage Analysis

Even the Details Came from God

> "Even as with the organization of the temple servants (2 Chronicles 29:25), these practical details were inspired by the Holy Spirit, not by human ingenuity." [1]

From the vestibule and treasuries (v. 11) down to the weight of every gold and silver bowl (v. 17), verse 12 says these were plans David "had by the Spirit," and in verse 19 David says, "the Lord made me understand in writing, by His hand upon me, all the works of these plans."

How the temple was to be built, down to the smallest detail, came from God's direction.

God Stays Until the Work Is Finished

> "Although David did his best to prepare materials and people for the temple, he clearly knew that just as God Himself led the conquest of Canaan, God Himself was also responsible for building the temple: 'He will not leave you nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord' (v. 20)." [2]

In verses 11–19 David handed Solomon the plans, and in verse 21 the priests, Levites, and willing craftsmen were ready to help him; yet the reason David gave Solomon to "be strong and of good courage" in verse 20 was "the Lord God—my God—will be with you."

God promised not to leave Solomon until the work of the house of the Lord was finished.

IV. Reflection Question

If you took on a huge job and were afraid you could never finish it, what would you do?

Solomon was taking on a huge job: building the temple from the plans the Lord had made David understand (v. 19). David told him, "do not fear," because God would be with him; the New Testament gives the same promise to believers (Heb. 13:5), and believers can be strong because God Himself takes charge of His own work [2]. God's promise was: "He will not leave you nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord." (v. 20)

References

[1] Enduring Word, David Guzik, https://enduringword.com/bible-commentary/1-chronicles-28/

[2] Chinese Christian Bible Study Resources (ccbiblestudy.org), 1 Chronicles 28 Notes (Comprehensive Commentary on 1 Chronicles; Bible Study Edition), https://www.ccbiblestudy.org/Old%20Testament/13%201Chro/13GT28.htm