I. Today's Reading

NKJV: Ezekiel 30:10-26

10 "Thus says the Lord God: 'I will also make a multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

11 He and his people with him, the most terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land; they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

12 I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked; I will make the land waste, and all that is in it, by the hand of aliens. I, the Lord, have spoken."

13 "Thus says the Lord God: 'I will also destroy the idols, and cause the images to cease from Noph; there shall no longer be princes from the land of Egypt; I will put fear in the land of Egypt.

14 I will make Pathros desolate, set fire to Zoan, and execute judgments in No.

15 I will pour My fury on Sin, the strength of Egypt; I will cut off the multitude of No,

16 And set a fire in Egypt; Sin shall have great pain, No shall be split open, and Noph shall be in distress daily.

17 The young men of Aven and Pi Beseth shall fall by the sword, and these cities shall go into captivity.

18 At Tehaphnehes the day shall also be darkened, when I break the yokes of Egypt there. And her arrogant strength shall cease in her; as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

19 Thus I will execute judgments on Egypt, then they shall know that I am the Lord."

20 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, that the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

21 "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and see, it has not been bandaged for healing, nor a splint put on to bind it, to make it strong enough to hold a sword.

22 Therefore thus says the Lord God: 'Surely I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, both the strong one and the one that was broken; and I will make the sword fall out of his hand.

23 I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them throughout the countries.

24 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put My sword in his hand; but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he will groan before him with the groanings of a mortally wounded man.

25 Thus I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; they shall know that I am the Lord, when I put My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he stretches it out against the land of Egypt.

26 I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries. Then they shall know that I am the Lord."

II. Key Summary

- Continuing the prophecy against Egypt from the previous passage (29:17–30:9), God further announces that He will destroy Egypt and its allied nations by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, leaving the whole land in ruins.
 - God names Egypt's cities and regions one by one—Noph, Pathros, Zoan, No, Sin, Tehaphnehes—declaring that each will be burned, broken open, and taken captive.
 - God says He has already broken Pharaoh's arm, and that He will strengthen the arm of the king of Babylon, put His sword in his hand, and scatter the Egyptians among the nations.

III. Passage Analysis

The One Who Really Holds History Is God

This is the testimony of history: we see that the Lord is the Master of history, and His hand is strong, mighty enough to sway the fate of the nations. [1]

In the previous passage (29:17–30:9) God announced He would hand Egypt over to Babylon; here (30:10-26) He spells it out in concrete detail—Pharaoh's strong arm is broken, while Babylon's arm is strengthened by God. This whole passage is about "hands" and "arms"—that is, power; and the One who decides whose strength is raised and whose falls has always been the same God who rules over history.

God's Judgment Aims to Make Him Truly Known

The Lord is known by the judgments which He executes. [2]

From the previous passage (29:17–30:9) through this one, the line "they shall know that I am the Lord" keeps coming back. God disciplines Egypt not to vent anger, but to make one thing clear: the real ruler is Him, not the powers that think they are so strong. He acts with justice and order, and in the end He wants people to recognize who He is.

IV. Reflection Question

When something goes really well for you—when you pull it off—who do you give the credit to?

This passage says an arm can be raised and a battle won because God gives the strength; your abilities and the things that go well for you trace back to Him too.
