I. Today's Reading

NKJV: Psalm 115:9-18

9 O Israel, trust in the Lord; He is their help and their shield.

10 O house of Aaron, trust in the Lord; He is their help and their shield.

11 You who fear the Lord, trust in the Lord; He is their help and their shield.

12 The Lord has been mindful of us; He will bless us; He will bless the house of Israel; He will bless the house of Aaron.

13 He will bless those who fear the Lord, Both small and great.

14 May the Lord give you increase more and more, You and your children.

15 May you be blessed by the Lord, Who made heaven and earth.

16 The heaven, even the heavens, are the Lord's; But the earth He has given to the children of men.

17 The dead do not praise the Lord, Nor any who go down into silence.

18 But we will bless the Lord From this time forth and forevermore. Praise the Lord!

II. Key Summary

- Verses 9–11 call Israel, the house of Aaron, and those who fear the Lord three times to trust in the Lord, saying He is their help and shield.
 - Verses 12–15 say the Lord has been mindful of them and will bless them; all who fear Him, small and great, will be blessed, and may they and their children increase.
 - Verses 16–18 say heaven and earth are in God's hands; the dead do not praise the Lord, but we will bless Him from now and forevermore.

III. Passage Analysis

Topic 1: Actually Put the Weight on God

"This goes beyond regarding Him as trustworthy, and actually placing our trust, our confidence, our reliance in Him and not in self or any idol." [1]

"Trust in the Lord; He is your help and your shield" — this is said once each to Israel, to the priests, and to those who fear God. Man-made idols can't even hold themselves up and need people to carry and tend them; this God instead becomes your help and shield. Trusting Him means actually handing the weight over, more than just saying so.

Topic 2: He Remembered You Before, and He Will Again

"The Lord has been mindful of us — He has remembered us in the past, and He will bless us in the future, both small and great." [2]

"The Lord has been mindful of us; He will bless us." The psalmist's hope has a basis: looking at how faithful God has been in the past, he knows God will keep him in mind in the future too.

IV. Reflection Question

When something frightening or stressful hits, what's the first thing you run to — your phone, your friends, or just gritting it out alone? Psalm 115 says three times, "Trust in the Lord; He is your help and your shield" — when trouble comes, hand the weight first to the God who can actually hold it.
