I. Today's Reading

NKJV: Psalm 109:1–16

1 Do not keep silent, O God of my praise!

2 For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful Have opened against me;
They have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

3 They have also surrounded me with words of hatred, And fought against me without a cause.

4 In return for my love they are my accusers, But I give myself to prayer.

5 Thus they have rewarded me evil for good, And hatred for my love.

6 Set a wicked man over him, And let an accuser stand at his right hand.

7 When he is judged, let him be found guilty, And let his prayer become sin.

8 Let his days be few, And let another take his office.

9 Let his children be fatherless, And his wife a widow.

10 Let his children continually be vagabonds, and beg; Let them seek their bread also from their desolate places.

11 Let the creditor seize all that he has, And let strangers plunder his labor.

12 Let there be none to extend mercy to him, Nor let there be any to favor his fatherless children.

13 Let his posterity be cut off, And in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the Lord, And let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

15 Let them be continually before the Lord, That He may cut off the memory of them from the earth;

16 Because he did not remember to show mercy, But persecuted the poor and needy man, That he might even slay the broken in heart.

II. Key Summary

- David says the wicked attack him without cause, using a lying tongue and words of hatred; he showed them love, yet they repay him evil for good and hatred for love (vv. 1–5).
 - In the face of these attacks, David's response is "But I give myself to prayer," bringing the whole matter to God (v. 4).
 - In vv. 6–16 David asks God to judge the wicked man, and names the reason for that judgment: he "did not remember to show mercy, But persecuted the poor and needy" (v. 16).

III. Passage Analysis

Topic 1: When You Are Hated and Wronged, Hand It to God

"David refused to act upon these curses; he left vengeance up to God." [1]

David had both the power and the chance to strike back, yet he chose prayer and placed the matter in God's hands. When people misunderstand you or speak against you, prayer is a way to set anger down and let God settle the account.

Topic 2: God Cares Whether There Is Mercy

"God plagues them in a strange way who show themselves cruel toward others." [2]

The key reason the wicked man is condemned is that he "did not remember to show mercy" and oppressed the weak. In God's eyes, being cold toward people in need and refusing to help is itself something He weighs seriously.

IV. Reflection Question

The last time someone misunderstood you or talked about you behind your back, was your first reaction to find a way to hit back, or to stop and pray? In Psalm 109, David is surrounded by lies, and his choice is to "give himself to prayer," handing the matter to God first.
