I. Today's Reading

NKJV: Psalm 111:1-10

1 Praise the Lord! I will praise the Lord with my whole heart, In the assembly of the upright and in the congregation.

2 The works of the Lord are great, Studied by all who have pleasure in them.

3 His work is honorable and glorious, And His righteousness endures forever.

4 He has made His wonderful works to be remembered; The Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

5 He has given food to those who fear Him; He will ever be mindful of His covenant.

6 He has declared to His people the power of His works, In giving them the heritage of the nations.

7 The works of His hands are verity and justice; All His precepts are sure.

8 They stand fast forever and ever, And are done in truth and uprightness.

9 He has sent redemption to His people; He has commanded His covenant forever: Holy and awesome is His name.

10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; A good understanding have all those who do His commandments. His praise endures forever.

III. Passage Analysis

Topic 1: The More You Look at What God Has Done, the More You See

"The more one gazes, the more one sees." [1]

The psalm says the Lord's works are "studied by all who have pleasure in them" — people who enjoy what God does stop and look closely. His creation and His acts hold up to careful attention; the more you notice, the more care you find in them.

Topic 2: Real Wisdom Starts With Taking God Seriously

"Practical godliness is the test of wisdom; obedience to God proves that our judgment is sound." [2]

"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom" — being smart starts with taking God seriously. And this wisdom does not stay in your head; being willing to do what God says is what proves you really get it.

IV. Reflection Question

What do you think "being smart" is — getting high test scores, quick thinking, or something else? Psalm 111 says "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom": real wisdom starts with taking God seriously and being willing to do what He says.
