I. Today's Reading

NKJV: Nahum 2:8-13

8 "Though Nineveh of old was like a pool of water, Now they flee away. 'Halt! Halt!' they cry; But no one turns back."

9 "Take spoil of silver! Take spoil of gold! There is no end of treasure, Or wealth of every desirable prize."

10 "She is empty, desolate, and waste! The heart melts, and the knees shake; Much pain is in every side, And all their faces are drained of color."

11 "Where is the dwelling of the lions, And the feeding place of the young lions, Where the lion walked, the lioness and lion's cub, And no one made them afraid?"

12 "The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, Killed for his lionesses, Filled his caves with prey, And his dens with flesh."

13 "'Behold, I am against you,' says the Lord of hosts, 'I will burn your chariots in smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions; I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers shall be heard no more.'"

II. Key Summary

- Nahum describes Nineveh, once as full of people as a pool of water, now emptied as its inhabitants flee with no one turning back, leaving behind immense wealth for the taking
 - The lion imagery portrays Assyria's brutal empire — a predator nation that plundered neighboring peoples and kept them living in fear
 - The Lord of hosts personally declares "I am against you," marking the end of Assyria's military power, wealth, and global influence

III. Passage Analysis

The Lions' Den Is Gone — Where Are They Now?

"This does not happen by chance, but because God determines to avenge the injuries inflicted upon His people." [1]

The lion was Assyria's national symbol — representing a predator empire that crushed and plundered other nations. When Nahum asks "Where is the dwelling of the lions?" he is making a stark point: even the den is gone. No matter how powerful something appears, when God withdraws his permission, nothing remains standing.

"I Am Against You" — Words Heavier Than Any Army

"What a terrible thing to hear from God! The principle of Romans 8:31 is true for the believer: If God is for us, who can be against us? Accordingly, the opposite is also true — if God is against you, then who can be for you?" [2]

Verse 13 is the climax of this whole passage. When the Lord of hosts — commander of all heaven's armies — personally stands against a power, that power's fate is sealed. This challenges us to ask not "who's on my side?" but rather, where do I stand with God?

IV. Reflection Question

Have you ever felt like something unfair in your life — a situation, a person — was just too powerful to ever change?

Nahum wrote this to people who had lived under Assyrian cruelty for years. God's message to them: I see it, and I have already decided. No injustice is permanent when the Lord of hosts has spoken.
