I. Today's Reading

NKJV: Ezekiel 25:12-17

12 "Because of what Edom did against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended by avenging itself on them,"

13 "I will also stretch out My hand against Edom, cut off man and beast from it, and make it desolate from Teman; Dedan shall fall by the sword."

14 "I will lay My vengeance on Edom by the hand of My people Israel, that they may do in Edom according to My anger and according to My fury; and they shall know My vengeance," says the Lord God.

15 "Because the Philistines dealt vengefully and took vengeance with a spiteful heart, to destroy because of the old hatred,"

16 "I will stretch out My hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites and destroy the remnant of the seacoast."

17 "I will execute great vengeance on them with furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I lay My vengeance upon them."

II. Key Summary

- Edom took vengeance on the house of Judah in its downfall, so God declares He will stretch out His hand against Edom and make it desolate from Teman to Dedan.
 - God says He will lay His vengeance on Edom by the hand of His people Israel, so that Edom will know the vengeance comes from Him.
 - The Philistines took revenge with a spiteful heart out of old hatred, so God declares He will cut them off; when He does, they will know that He is the LORD.

III. Passage Analysis

Old Grudges Come at a Price

"Those who treasure up old hatred, and watch for the opportunity of manifesting it, are treasuring up for themselves wrath against the day of wrath." [1]

Edom and the Philistines held on to their hatred for generations and struck when Judah was down. God saw all of it — hatred you keep stored up doesn't just sit there; it comes back on the one holding it.

Judgment That Makes God Known

"God's purpose was always greater than just judgment or vengeance; there was, and always is, the strong purpose of His self-revelation." [2]

The passage ends with "they shall know that I am the LORD." Even in judgment, God is still speaking to the nations — those who would not recognize Him any other way would finally know who He is.

IV. Reflection Question

When someone wrongs you, how long do you usually keep it on record in your heart?

Edom kept its grudge alive for generations — and God said vengeance belongs to Him. Handing the scales over to God is what lets your heart move on.
