I. Today's Reading

NKJV: Psalm 112:1-10

1 Praise the Lord! Blessed is the man who fears the Lord, Who delights greatly in His commandments.

2 His descendants will be mighty on earth; The generation of the upright will be blessed.

3 Wealth and riches will be in his house, And his righteousness endures forever.

4 Unto the upright there arises light in the darkness; He is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

5 A good man deals graciously and lends; He will guide his affairs with discretion.

6 Surely he will never be shaken; The righteous will be in everlasting remembrance.

7 He will not be afraid of evil tidings; His heart is steadfast, trusting in the Lord.

8 His heart is established; He will not be afraid, Until he sees his desire upon his enemies.

9 He has dispersed abroad, He has given to the poor; His righteousness endures forever; His horn will be exalted with honor.

10 The wicked will see it and be grieved; He will gnash his teeth and melt away; The desire of the wicked shall perish.

II. Key Summary

- Verse 1 says blessed is the one who fears the Lord and delights greatly in His commandments.
 - Verses 2–9 describe this person's life: mighty descendants, wealth in his house, light in the darkness, dealing graciously and giving to the poor, and a steadfast heart unafraid of bad news.
 - Verse 10 says the wicked will see it and be grieved, gnashing their teeth and melting away, and the desire of the wicked will perish.

III. Passage Analysis

Topic 1: The Blessed Life Starts With Loving God's Word

"To this man God's word is as fascinating as are his works to the naturalist; what grips him is God's will and call." [1]

Yesterday Psalm 111 spoke of delighting in God's works; today goes a step further — delighting in God's commandments. Treating God's word as something interesting, something you actually want to live out, is where the blessed life begins.

Topic 2: A Heart That's Anchored Isn't Thrown by Bad News

"What has a man to be afraid of who does trust in him?" [2]

"He will not be afraid of evil tidings; his heart is steadfast, trusting in the Lord." Bad news still comes, but the person who holds onto God isn't scattered by it, and stays standing even when things don't go his way.

IV. Reflection Question

Do you find yourself worrying about things that haven't even happened yet — waiting for a grade, waiting for some news, stomach in knots? Psalm 112 says the one who fears God "will not be afraid of evil tidings; his heart is steadfast, trusting in the Lord," because what he holds onto is God, and he stays standing even when things don't go his way.
