I. Today's Reading

NKJV: 1 Chronicles 29:20-30

20 Then David said to all the assembly, "Now bless the LORD your God." So all the assembly blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed their heads and prostrated themselves before the LORD and the king.

21 And they made sacrifices to the LORD and offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the next day: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.

22 So they ate and drank before the LORD with great gladness on that day. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him before the LORD to be the leader, and Zadok to be priest.

23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.

24 All the leaders and the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David, submitted themselves to King Solomon.

25 So the LORD exalted Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

26 Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

27 And the period that he reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and thirty-three years he reigned in Jerusalem.

28 So he died in a good old age, full of days and riches and honor; and Solomon his son reigned in his place.

29 Now the acts of King David, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer,

30 with all his reign and his might, and the events that happened to him, to Israel, and to all the kingdoms of the lands.

II. Key Summary

• David told the whole assembly to bless the LORD, and they blessed the LORD and bowed before the LORD and the king; the next day they offered a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs and sacrifices in abundance, and ate and drank before the LORD with great gladness (vv. 20-22).

• They made Solomon king a second time and anointed Zadok to be priest; Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD in place of David and prospered, all the leaders, mighty men and sons of King David submitted to him, and the LORD exalted him exceedingly (vv. 22-25).

• David reigned over all Israel for forty years, seven in Hebron and thirty-three in Jerusalem; he died in a good old age, full of days and riches and honor, and his acts are written in the books of Samuel, Nathan and Gad (vv. 26-30).

III. Passage Analysis

One Steps Up, One Steps Away

> "These verses bring king Solomon to his throne and king David to his grave. Thus the rising generation thrusts out that which went before, and says, 'Make room for us.' Every one has his day." [1]

Verse 23 says Solomon reigned "as king instead of David his father," and verse 28 says David "died ... and Solomon his son reigned in his place." In one short passage, one man takes the throne and another finishes his life.

David's days came to an end, and the throne passed to the next generation.

The Throne Always Belonged to the LORD

> "David 'died in a good old age, full of days and riches and honor,' but God's purpose for the kingdom and the temple still continued. For the 'throne' belongs to God, and the 'kingdom' also belongs to God; it is God Himself who rules over all things and drives history forward." [2]

Verse 23 calls Solomon's seat "the throne of the LORD," and verse 25 says "the LORD exalted Solomon exceedingly."

The person on the throne changed, but the throne was always the LORD's.

IV. Reflection Question

If you had to take over a role someone else left behind, what is the first thing you would do?

Solomon also took over his father David's place; he sat on "the throne of the LORD," all Israel obeyed him, and the LORD exalted him exceedingly. David died, but the throne still belonged to God, and His purpose still continued [2].
