

Daily Bible Note

Date: June 3, 2026

I. Today's Reading

NKJV: 1 Corinthians 11:27–34

27 Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks this cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

29 For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy manner eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this reason many are weak and sick among you, and many sleep.

31 For if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are chastened by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world.

33 Therefore, my brethren, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

34 But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest you come together for judgment. And the rest I will set in order when I come.

II. Key Summary

- Paul warns that eating the bread or drinking the cup in an unworthy manner makes a person guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord, and calls each believer to examine themselves before eating (vv. 27–28).
 - Paul connects the failure to discern the Lord's body at Corinth to real consequences already present in the congregation — weakness, sickness, and even death (vv. 29–30).
 - Paul gives specific instructions for the gathering: wait for one another; if hungry, eat at home first, so the assembly does not become an occasion for judgment (vv. 33–34).
-

III. Passage Analysis

"Unworthily" Is About Attitude, Not Worthiness

"If anyone needs to remember the work of Jesus on the cross, it is the one who has sinned! When we are repentant, our sin should drive us to our Savior, not away from Him. However, if a Christian is in sin, and stubbornly unrepentant, they are mocking what Jesus did on the cross to cleanse them from their sin." [1]

Paul says "let him examine himself, and so let him eat" — the examination leads to the table, not away from it. Coming with a prepared, honest heart is the goal; staying home out of guilt is the opposite of what Paul intends.

Not Seeing Each Other = Not Seeing Christ's Body

"He who eats and drinks without discerning the Body (i.e., the Church) in that assembly, eats and drinks a judgment to himself." [2]

The Corinthians' problem wasn't a wrong theology about bread and wine — it was that they showed up together but acted like strangers: the rich ate well, the poor went hungry. "Wait for one another" (v. 33) is what recognizing Christ's body looks like in practice.

IV. Reflection Question

Think of a time before something important — a hard conversation you needed to have, a moment you knew you couldn't mess up — when you realized the problem wasn't that you lacked the skills, but that your head and heart just weren't in the right place. Did you stop to sort yourself out first, or did you push through anyway?

Paul says "examine yourself, and so eat" — the examination leads to the moment, not away from it. If preparing your heart is different from just preparing your skills, what would that have looked like for you in that situation?

References

[1] Enduring Word, David Guzik,

<https://enduringword.com/bible-commentary/1-corinthians-11/>

[2] BibleHub, Ellicott's Commentary for English Readers, https://www.biblehub.com/commentaries/1_corinthians/11-29.htm