I. Today's Reading

NKJV: Ezekiel 39:11-20

11 "It will come to pass in that day that I will give Gog a burial place there in Israel, the valley of those who pass by east of the sea; and it will obstruct travelers, because there they will bury Gog and all his multitude. Therefore they will call it the Valley of Hamon Gog.

12 For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them, in order to cleanse the land.

13 Indeed all the people of the land will be burying, and they will gain renown for it on the day that I am glorified," says the Lord God.

14 "They will set apart men regularly employed, with the help of a search party, to pass through the land and bury those bodies remaining on the ground, in order to cleanse it. At the end of seven months they will make a search.

15 The search party will pass through the land; and when anyone sees a man's bone, he shall set up a marker by it, till the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon Gog.

16 The name of the city will also be Hamonah. Thus they shall cleanse the land.'

17 "And as for you, son of man, thus says the Lord God, 'Speak to every sort of bird and to every beast of the field: "Assemble yourselves and come; Gather together from all sides to My sacrificial meal Which I am sacrificing for you, A great sacrificial meal on the mountains of Israel, That you may eat flesh and drink blood.

18 You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, Drink the blood of the princes of the earth, Of rams and lambs, Of goats and bulls, All of them fatlings of Bashan.

19 You shall eat fat till you are full, And drink blood till you are drunk, At My sacrificial meal Which I am sacrificing for you.

20 You shall be filled at My table With horses and riders, With mighty men And with all the men of war," says the Lord God.

II. Key Summary

- God says He will give Gog a burial place in the valley east of the sea, and the house of Israel will spend seven months burying Gog and all his multitude; the place will be called the Valley of Hamon Gog (vv. 11-12).
 - After those seven months, search parties will keep passing through the land, and whenever anyone spots a human bone they set up a marker so the buriers can carry it to the Valley of Hamon Gog; there is also a city named Hamonah (vv. 14-16).
 - God tells Ezekiel to speak to every bird and beast, calling them from all sides to the mountains of Israel to eat the flesh of the mighty and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, filled at God's table with horses, riders, and all the men of war (vv. 17-20).

III. Passage Analysis

Not a Single Trace Left Behind

The motive is the complete annihilation of the enemy, the removal of every trace of him. [1]

Driving the enemy off wasn't the end of it. God had people walk the land inch by inch for seven months, setting up a marker beside every bone they spotted, until there was nothing left to find — evil doesn't get held down here, it gets pulled out by the roots.

The Land Gets Cleaned Because Someone Is Moving In

They did not want the land, holy to God, to be defiled by unclean corpses. [2]

Bodies lying on the ground defiled the land, and that land belonged to the Lord. All this trouble to get it clean was leading somewhere — in the very next chapter, Ezekiel sees the vision of the new temple.

IV. Reflection Question

The way God deals with evil is to remove it completely, leaving not one trace of it. What in your life would you want Him to deal with that way?

Israel searched the whole land and let not one bone slip past, because God wanted that land completely clean — He was getting ready to move in.
